CHILTERN

2 1

The property is located at 78-82 Conness St, East Chiltern, the town's main street, and consists of three separate titles.

Lots 6 and 7 cover vacant land totalling 35mx10m.

Lot 8 is Kilgour's Foundry and Blacksmith Shop covering 13mx35m. The building has been converted into a residence with courtyard, carport, rear gateway access and masonry fence.

The interior boasts a spectacular open lounge/kitchen/dining area and contains:

Modern kitchen with stainless steel appliances, concrete benchtops and jarrah cupboards studio single loft-style bedroom bathroom/laundry with separate courtyard ante-room/guest room under loft, with pot-belly wood heater mains water, mains gas, power, ADSL broadband
The rear courtyard encloses masonry shade areas and extensive walled gardens of succulents, cactuses and wisteria, a barbecue area and an outdoor fireplace.

A garden shed and carport are at the rear of the courtyard.

The building is constructed of double brick. This Victorian era industrial building is one of a very few examples of this type in North East Victoria.
